

Historical Records of Dragons Quiz

1. According to the Old Testament, Leviathan was :
A) A dragon B) A fire-breathing creature C) A sea serpent D) A, B, and C
2. According to Job 41, Leviathan's body could be pierced with :
A) Arrows B) Spears and Javelins C) Catapults D) Sling stones E) _____ of the above
3. T F At least three different types of dragons, flying reptiles, and/or Dinosaur-like creatures are mentioned or described in the Old Testament.
4. T F According to Job chapter 40, Behemoth lived along the Jordan River and had a tail that was compared to a cedar tree.
5. T F A cedar of Lebanon has a trunk that is from 2-3 feet in diameter, or larger.
6. T F Marco Polo reported on live dragons during his 18 years of explorations of China.
7. T F Marco Polo's report of Chinese dragons was immediately criticized by the local authorities.
8. T F A French archeologist found what looks like a stegosaurus carved on an 800 – 1000 year old Cambodian temple, took a picture of it, and published it in a book.
9. T F One of the twelve different animals that appear on the Chinese horoscope is a dragon.
10. T F The Chinese horoscope has at least 11 actual (non-mythical) animals on it.
11. T F The Carlyle cathedral in Scotland has a carving of two different types of dinosaurs.
12. T F Many different cultures around the world have stories of dragons.
13. T F A 16th Century book on animals of the world, contained a reference to (live) dragons, that were (at that time) considered to be rare or endangered.
14. T F Marco Polo said that the Chinese were killing dragons in the 13th Century.
15. T F Over the last three hundred years many people have reported seeing large sea serpents, dinosaur-like creatures and/or flying reptiles that resembled pterodactyls.

Answers on Back